Training of Probs Asst-Comrs

33 All the Dy. Comrs who were asked to furnish their opinion as to whether the duration & nature of the training now given to the Probs Asst-Comrs requires revision in any manner have sent up their replies except the Dy. Commr Hassan though he was reminded thrice officially so often. He has not furnished his reply. It may therefore be presumed that he has no suggestions to make in the matter.

34 The Dy. Comrs of Chitaldrug & Mysore have replied & state that the existing scheme of training is suitable & does not call for any change.

35 The Dy. Comrs of Mangalore, Kolar, Tumkur, Kadur & the Rev. Comr are all of opinion that the period of training in "Taluk Office" now given to the Probs Asst-Comrs is quite inadequate & that it should be increased, effecting if necessary a corresponding decrease in the period of training in the Accounts Dept. It is stated that the increased training in the "Taluk Office" would enable the Asst-Comrs to get a better insight into the Admn of the Tk & improve their efficiency.

36 The Dy. Commr Shimoga has opined that after the Probs Asst-Comrs that the period of training in the "Accts Dept" may be reduced to 3½ months & that the posting Asst-Comrs may be trained in "Rural Reconstruction work" at certain Rural Welfare Centres for at least a fortnight, inclusive of training for 3 days in "Sanitary"

Provision for training in this item of work was made reducing the period in the undermentioned items to the extent noted against each :-

(1) Training in Treasury Work was reduced from three to two months

(2) Taluk office training was curtailed from 4 months to 3 months

(3) Independent Charge of a TK was reduced from 6 months to 4 months.

4. The taluk office training was further reduced to one month from three months : Thus the main period of magisterial training was raised from 2 to 6 months.

43 Para 10 of the notes in GS file no. 30-40 (1) gives the programme of training in the Accounts Dept. It is for consideration if the Fin Br may be consulted whether any of the items may be eliminated or curtailed, if it is considered to enhance the period of training in TK office.

I, Leopold Stennett Amery, one of His Majesty's Principa Secretaries of State, in virtue of the powers conferred by Sectio 247 (1) of the Government of India Act, 1935, hereby make, wit the concurrence of my Advisers, the following rules, namely

1.—(1) These Rules may be cited as the Indian Civil Servic (Probationary Service) Rules, 1940, (2) They shall apply to al persons appointed under Rule 2 of these Rules.

2. A person selected, either in India or in the United Kingdom and whether or not as the result of written examination, fo admission to the Indian Civil Service shall be appointed to be member of that Service on probation, and a person so appointed i hereinafter referred to as " a probationer

3. Every probationer shall undergo training for such perio and at such place or places in India as the Secretary of State ma decide.

4. A probationer who fails to comply with the provisions o these Rules or to obey any order which he may receive from th Secretary of State, or any other duly constituted authority actin on behalf of the Secretary of State, or who wilfully neglects hi probationary studies or is guilty of conduct unbecoming an office of the Indian Civil Service, shall be liable to removal from th Service.

The Secretary of State shall decide any question arising unde this Rule, and his decision shall be final.

5. Periodical reports on the conduct and progress of proba tioners shall be made to the Secretary of State who, in cases o misconduct or unsatisfactory progress, shall take such disciplinar action as he may consider necessary.

6. Probationers shall, at or about the end of the period of pro bation, undergo an examination, to be called the Final Examination The subjects of this examination and the marks respectivel obtainable for them shall be as follows :—

(i) Indian Law	600

(3) A probationer who is not required under the preceding sub-rules to offer a vernacular language shall offer an alternative subject approved by the Federal Public Service Commission. The alternative subjects which may be approved for this purpose are

(a) Another approved vernacular

(b) A classical language selected from Sanskrit, Arabic and Persian ;

(c) British History ;

(d) European History ; and

(e) Currency, Banking and Public Finance.

Any question as to the interpretation and application of this Rule shall be decided by the Federal Public Service Commission.

8. In addition to the Final Examination in riding, probationers may be required to attend for examination in this subject at such time or times during the probationary period as the Federal Public Service Commission may appoint

9. Such deductions may be made from the marks assigned to probationers at the Final Examination as the Federal Public Service Commission may consider necessary in order to ensure that no credit is allowed for merely superficial knowledge.

10. Probationers may be required to attend lectures in other subjects, including Hindu and Mohammadan Law, Indian Social Welfare and Public Health, besides those which are prescribed for the Final Examination.

11. The Federal Public Service Commission shall prepare a list of the probationers in order of merit as indicated by the marks awarded at the Final Examination provided that in preparing the list no account shall be taken of marks awarded to a probationer in any subject in which he has failed to satisfy the Commission. The seniority of probationers inter se shall be determined by the order in which their names appear in this list, but the Secretary of State reserves the right in exceptional cases to alter the order of seniority as so determined by taking into account the marks earned by a probationer at an examination held in the circumstances provided for in rule 16.

12. The Federal Public Service Commission may, in their discretion, at any time prior to the date on which a Probationer signs the covenant in accordance with rule 14, institute, or cause to be instituted, such enquiries as they may deem necessary in respect of his nationality, age, health, character and conduct, and if the result of such enquiries is unsatisfactory in any of the above respects, the Secretary of State may forthwith remove him from the Indian Civil Service.

3. The probationers whose performance in the subjects of the Final Examination is such as to satisfy the Secretary of State and who have also satisfied him as to their eligibility in respect of nationality, age, health, character and conduct during the period of probation, shall be qualified for further employment in the Indian Civil Service.

14. Every probationer who satisfies the conditions referred to in the last preceding Rule shall execute a Covenant in the form annexed to these Rules and shall pay the stamp duty payable thereon.

15. A probationer who fails to satisfy the Federal Public Service Commission at the Final Examination shall thereupon cease to be a member of the Indian Civil Service unless the Secretary of State shall allow him to sit for re-examination in the subject or subjects in which he failed. The marks awarded to a probationer on re-examination shall not be taken into account by the Commission in assessing the order of merit as prescribed by Rule 11.

16. If any probationer is prevented by sickness or any other adequate cause from attending, or from completing his course of study for, the Final Examination ; the Federal Public Serivce Commission may, with the concurrence of the Secretary of State, allow him to appear at the Final Examination to be held in the following year, or may arrange for him to be specially examined in any or all of the subjects prescribed for the Final Examination after such interval as may seem to them suitable having regard to the circumstances of the case. The marks awarded to a probationer in respect of such a special examination shall not ordinarily be taken into account in assessing the seniority of the probationer.

17. No salary shall be payable to a probationer in respect of his service in the probationary period, but each probationer shall receive an allowance of Rs. 400, or if he is of non-Asiatic domicile of Rs. 450, for each month or part of a month during which he is under training in accordance with Rule 3 :

Provided that the allowance shall cease to be payable to a probationer from the date on which he executes a covenant or, in the case of a probationer to whom the provisions of Rule 15 or Rule 16 apply, unless the Secretary of State, otherwise directs, from the earliest date on which a covenant is signed by any probationer under Rule 14.

18. A probationer will be entitled to Travelling Allowance at the rates prescribed for officers of the first class on tour in respect of the initial journey to the place selected for training from his home or last address in India whichever is nearer to the joining centre, if he is of Asiatic domicile, or from the port of disembarkation, if he is of non-Asiatic domicile, and in respect of any journey which he may be required to perform for the purpose of training or examination.

19. On appointment, each probationer shall execute an agreement binding himself and one surety jointly and severally to refund all moneys he may have received in pursuance of these Rules in the event of the failure of the Probationer to satisfy the conditions or to execute the covenant prescribed by these rules.

20.—(1) A free passage to India shall be provided by the High Commissioner for India for every probationer who has been directed in accordance with these Rules to report for training in India. No baggage expenses or other allowance will be admissible.

(2) A probationer who desires to make his own arrangements for proceeding to India must first satisfy the Secretary of State that he has good reasons for wishing to do so and that the arrangements which he proposes to make are suitable. He may then be granted an allowance of such amount as may be determined from time to time by the Secretary of State.

21. Nothing in the foregoing Rules shall be construed as limiting the power of the Secretary of State to remove, at any time, a probationer from the Indian Civil Service if reasons exist which, in his judgment, justify such action.

22. The Indian Civil Service (Probationary Service) Rules, 1938, are hereby repealed.

FORM OF THE COVENANT REFERRED TO IN RULE 14.

THIS INDENTURE made the day of in the year of our Lord 19 , between hereinafter called "the Covenantor") of the one part and the Secretary of State of the other part. WHEREAS the Secretary of State has appointed the Covenantor to serve His Majesty as a Member of the Civil Service of India, in the Province of in the East Indies (with the option to the Government of India at any time and from time to time to require him to serve elsewhere in India), such service to continue during the pleasure of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, to be signified under the hand of the Secretary of State for India, but with liberty for the said Covenantor to resign the said service, with the previous permission of the Secretary of State or of the Government under which he may for the time being be serving. With reference to your letter No.449-57/CB dated 27th July 1946 requesting to furnish my opinion regarding the revision of the duration and nature of training now being given to the probationary ~~Accountant~~ Assistant Commissioners, I have the honour state that as per G.O.No.487-90/CB.30-40-1 dated 2nd. August 194 as amended by G.O.No.3865-924/CB 30-40-4 dated 18th and 21st. April 1941, probationary ~~Accountant~~ Assistant Commissioners are being trained in Office work and their duties for a total period of twenty four months as detailed in the margin. It can be seen therefrom that the period of training in the Taluk Office is only one month, which appears to be quite inadequate if the efficienty this class of officials is to be improved. In view of the Mi laneous nature of the Taluk Office work, a longer period tha ne month. appears to be necessary. Therefore it is suggeste hat, the period of training such as training in accounts' de ment and training in Engineering, may be suitably reduced and period of Taluk Office training may be proportionately increa with a view to systematic training being given to them in the several branches of the taluk office including the Jamabandi

Re:- The revision of the period of training of Probationary Assistant Commissioners.

With reference to your letter No.449-57/E.E. dated 27th July 1946 calling for my opinion as to whether the duration and nature of training now given to the Probationary Assistant Commissioners require any revision, I have the honour to state that training may be modified as follows.-

9 CB. MB 7/8/46

First two months-Survey Training. Next 3 months, Engineering Training. Next two months training in Treasury Work. (1 month in Taluk Treasury and 1 month in District Treasury)

Next, Taluk Office	1 month
Sub-Division Office.	1 month
District Office	2 months
Magisterial Training.	1 month

If he has passed Revenue and Accounts, to be in independent charge of Taluk 10 months. He will when in charge of the Taluk be empowered to try IIIrd and IInd Class Cases. He may be first made 3rd Class Magistrate and then 2nd Class Magistrate after he gains experience.

During the last two months, he may be put in charge of any independent work to which he has an aptitude.

During the first year of training, the probationers may be posted in Bangalore District itself under the direct charge of a Senior Deputy Commissioner posted mainly for training the Probationers.

Sir,

With reference to your letter No.449-57/C.B. dated the 27th July 194 calling for my opinion in the matter of the training that is being given to Probationary Assistant Commissioners, I have the honour to state that the course of training prescribed in G.O.No.3865-924/C.B.30-40-4 dated the 18th/21st April 1941 appears to be suitable. I however consider it desirable that, as far as possible, the duration prescribed for the seve items of training should be adhered to especially in regard to a Probati being required to be in independant charge of a Taluk for a period of th months. Of late this portion of the training is omitted and Probationers posted to independant charges before the completion of their training. I would suggest that during the period of the two years probation, these officers should not be posted to regular charges, except in very exceptio cases, and that the entire period should be devoted for training them in the several branches of work.

GOVT. OF MYSORE

Sir,

Subject:- Probationary Assistant Commissioners
Period of Training

With reference to your letter No. 445/C.B. dated 27th July 1946, asking as to whether the duration and nature of Training now given to the Probationary Assistant Commissioners, require revision in any manner, I have the honour to state that, among others, the Probationary Assistant Commissioners are given Training in the Accounts Department, for a period of 4 months, whereas they are placed in independent charge of a Taluk, for a period of three months. If these Officers are allowed to be in charge of a Taluk for a longer period, it will give them a better insight into the administration of the Taluk

In these circumstances, I propose that, the period of Training in the Accounts Department may be reduced by one month and that in independent charge of the Taluk be raised by one month, making it four months.

Sir,

Adverting to your letter No.449-57/C.B. dated 27th July 1946 asking for my opinion in the matter referred to above, I have the honour to state that no change in the nature and duration of the training is necessary except for the item No.4 (i.e., training the Accounts Department for a period of 4 months) prescribed in para 207(b) of the General Circulars and Standing Orders Part I which may be reduced by one month as the Probationery Assistant Commissioners will be under training in the Treasury work separately for two months as shown in item No.2 of the said schedule. The period of one month thus reduced may be added on to the training period of 3 months under "Independent charge of a Taluk" (item No.9) making it in all to four months where the Probationery Assistant Commissioner will be trained for 4 months months being in independent charge of a Taluk.

As regards the Riding training the Probationery Assistant Commissioners may be given such training while they are undergoing the course under item No of the said schedule.
